1 longer in custody. The court ordered petitioner on January 18, 2007 to file a notice
2 of his current address and his continued intent to prosecute no later than 30 days 3 from the date of the order. The court stated that failure to file would result in the 4 dismissal of the action without prejudice for failure to prosecute.

5 On February 7, 2007, the post office returned the court's mail to petitioner as 6 undeliverable. Because sixty (60) days have passed since the court's mail to 7 petitioner was returned as undeliverable, and the court has received no written 8 communication from petitioner indicating a current address, the case is DISMISSED
9 without prejudice pursuant to Local Rule 3-11(b).
